Price Negotiation Only

GOBS will negotiate only the price of heating oil with local suppliers. The terms and conditions of supply are set by the chosen supplier and will remain unchanged by GOBS.

Property Damage

GOBS is not liable for any damage caused by the supplier.

Order Accuracy

Members must ensure their order forms are completed correctly and submitted before the deadline. GOBS is not responsible for missed orders due to unread emails, technical issues, or postal delays.

Sharing of Details

GOBS will share members' contact details with the chosen supplier so they can arrange delivery.

Delivery Timing

GOBS cannot guarantee specific delivery times or dates. The delivery schedule will be shared as soon as possible so members can ensure clear access and remove any padlocks from tanks.
